Large 45x45 original oil painting of woman's neck. Sensual, well-done, looks like photograph but it is a painting. Painted by artist Ron Lanam in 1986, a painting commissioned by my family. No provenance, but I can attest that I was present when it was painted. I could not find this artist online. I believe he died in the early 90's. Would look great in a salon or clothing store, or office building. Very minor aging, but still in great shape. Stretched canvas over wood frame. Local pickup/ cash only. not ship.
