My father, Gary, began the Agency in 1980. When I was 13 years old, I started working for my father in the summer, helping around the office. I then became an agent myself in 1998, working alongside him. In 2008, my father passed, and I continued to run the business with the same integrity and honesty he infused in me. Our customers are our top priority and we strive to make the service you receive top notch.
